● Goals

Exchange

The goal of every BSides event is to create a forum for communication and cooperation. Unlike large conferences, the topics at BSides focus on new emerging innovations and security-related areas. Sponsoring is a way for you to participate actively in this exchange.

Engagement

There are no visitors to BSides, only participants. Everyone can contribute to the conference. All participants should get involved by discussing and exchanging ideas with each other. Topics are based on the interests of the participants, rather than industry buzzwords. It's about more than just information: it's about getting involved and supporting each other in a community.

Target Group

The event is aimed at all those with a passion for and interest in IT security – from C-Level to IT managers, IT consultants, IT specialists, hackers and students alike.
